Stay tuned! The original Dutch settlers of New York brought recipes they knew and understood from the Netherlands and their mark on local cuisine is still apparent today: in many quarters of New York their version of apple pie with a streusel top is still baked, while originating in the colony of New Amsterdam their predilection for waffles in time evolved into the American national recipe and forms part of a New York City brunch, and they also made coleslaworiginally a Dutch salad, but today accented with the later 18th-century introduction of mayonnaise. It was the only way to get the sauce to have enough flavour without going over 5 ingredients. Butfirst,avideo!CrustaceansincludedshrimplobstercrayfishanddungenThe texture was just perfect. I wanted the paste to be at room temperature anyway, and my rationale was that Pecorino itself would not spoil at room temperature for this relatively short duration. We also used regular sized tortillas accidentally purchased the wrong size and we actually liked the smaller versions. Meltotherescue!!This was great!
