Proves how Palestinians have always existed even though some Israelis would have you believe. Which is why it's odd that I come away from this book somewhat less convinced of Khalidi's point than at the outset. OtherEditions9. The second edition was updated in to capture recent developments in this fluid identity and to analyze emerging new layers influenced by the failure of the so-called peace process, the second Intifada, and the increasing nationalism and Islamization of the Arab world.
