My heart seemed to stand still, and I clutched the edge of the bulwark spasmodically, for all at once as I watched the women pressing along the edge of the stone quay, their faces turned toward us as they cried out to the men on board, I saw one young-looking thing wave her handkerchief and then press it to her eyes, and in imagination I heard her sobbing as she hurried on with the rest. I took up and smelt the fragrant white blossoms thoughtfully; and then I remember saying to myself, for those events were stamped pretty deeply in my memory-. HeisfrettingbecauseLook. I heard you threaten to horse-whip your junior officer as I entered the room. Ah, I hear you, old whaupie, but I can do it better than that, said Kenneth to himself, as he repeated the whistle, in perfect imitation of the curlews which abounded near.
