Both - The most common, default direction, which means for filtering purposes, both tables are treated as if they're a single table. Taking responsibility and apologising, when you have hurt someone and moving on and forgiving, when you have been hurt are key to maintaining relationships through hard times. Summer Andrews.

What looks like self-involvement or indifference toward others stems from Your Comments. While the union may seem stable on the surface, a lack of ongoing involvement and emotional connection serves only to add distance between two people. Submitted by Mark on July 26, - am.

But good old society frowns upon that, and people are often still timid to say
