Compulsory with a price of The bearer's address is not printed on the card but i doing so, this book aims to provide a comprehensive, relatively balanced, and factually grounded narrative of the Turco-Greek Exchange of Populations as a his- torical event that has been the subject of much distortion in the historio-graphical traditions of nationalist lore in Greece and Turkey and scholarly publications of various sorts at an international level over the span of more than eighty years.
Greek ambassadors, consuls, and philhellenes throughout the world launched a systematic fund-raising cam- paign, whereby they sought assistance from the countries with large Greek populations.
