She reared him, and placed him in a position to become a hero. To understand the role that the tales played in their bequest to western civilization if not the world, we must bear in mind what they stated Olde and Forgotten Faerie Tales the preface of the first edition: It is probably just the right time to gather these tales, since those who have been making an effort to preserve them are becoming even harder to find to be sure, those who know them still know a great deal, because people may die, but the stories live on.
