In his music, there are various human elements that come into play throughout his legendary life that support the all mighty question: What does it mean to be human? It would have been four stars but that last pages about court cases and Ziggy Marley were just totally unnecessary and a drag. Bob Marley possessed a quality that allowed him to catapult to the peaks of stardom by singing about his faith and the oppression of his people.

As I read more and more it was they younger Bob Marley that caught my attention. It helps place things in better perspective as a reader. They were also unchallenged as Jamaica's hardest rhythm section, a status that was to remain undiminished during the following decade. Ebbe Elmasaidi marked it as to-read Dec 20, Although he took a job in a welding shop, Bob spent all his free time with Bunny, perfecting their vocal abilities.
