The inaugural Leopards Awards for Excellence in Jewellery is set to get top billing at a Goldsmith's Hall Gala dinner next week, flagging up a new British campaign to raise the profile of British designers and encourage jewellery training among young people from underprivileged backgrounds. This is where you come in; to help the revive tradition. As Editor of Haiku Xpressions for the past five years, I have been pleased to be able to offer publishing opportunities to poets within Australia and internationally.
