It is fiction based on a true happening...a horrific fire in that burned much of coastal Maine. But, ultimately, this novella wound up being my least favorite story in the

Michael A. These aliens, who refer to themselves as The Chain, consider them

At the end of Mr. I am choosing this book for my April book club selection, because it will definitely make for a terrific discussion.

If I remember correctly, that plan makes the ride a bit...rocky. I understand

'cats' and 'dogs' on either side of the war is a stroke of genius but the general storyline itself is fresh and interesting. A transporter accident throws Kirk, Bones, Scotty, and Uhura into an alternate universe where the beneficent United Federation of Planets has been replaced by a vicious, evil Terran empire populated by darker versions of all the familiar Trek characters.
