The Courage To Say No

Sadly, it took me most of my adult life to realize that. If you're in the same place, you need to hear this as much I did (and still do). Saying "no" doesn't make you.

Quote by W. Clement Stone: "Have the courage to say no. Have the courage to"

Have you ever asked yourself why it is always so important for you to please everyone, to the point that you would feel resentful and stressed.

It takes courage to say NO to cynicism, resignation and suffering! | Quantum Performance Inc

We need to find the courage to say no to the things and people that are not serving us And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition.

Barbara De Angelis - We need to find the courage to say no
Have the courage to say no. Have the courage to face the truth. Do the right thing because it is right. These are the magic keys to living your life with integrity.
