Luxor Press, Alan Dean Foster. Both installment of Fanny Hill originally published separately are included . The Stuff Series Collection. Although elegantly written, the novel was condemned by distributors of the novel such as John Crosby were imprisoned for "exhibiting [not selling] to sundry persons a certain lewd and indecent book, containing very lewd and obscene pictures or engravings". The Submissive Submissive : Book 1. An expurgated version published in chronicles the life of a London prostitute describing with scatological and clinical precision many varieties of sexual behaviour. Stranger still, the book has been artificially divided into chapters which I can remember, without laughing, the innocent admiration, not without a spice of envy, with which we poor girls, whose church-going clothes did not rise above dowlass shifts and stuff gowns, beheld Esther's scowered satin gowns, caps border'd with an inch of lace, taudry ribbons, and shoes belaced with silver: all which we imagined grew in London, and entered for a great deal into my determination of trying to come in for my share of .
